

Farah Greeley

Director of Outreach

Farah has been attending church at Burke UMC since 1994 and became a member in 1998. She has been very active in church life teaching Sunday School, being a confirmation mentor, and volunteering in many ministries here at the church. She has been a Sunday school teacher since her own children were small, and a teacher at BUMP for 25 years.

Farah has been married to her wonderful husband Bob for 42 years, is a mom to four, and 'Gigi' to ten grandchildren. She has lived in four states and 3 countries. She loves to read, hike, and find new ways to be creative.

Farah has always had a passion for outreach and that is what drew her to attending church at BUMC. She looks forward to growing the outreach program and finding new ways to love God's people.
