

Linda Brese

Organist

Linda grew up in Ashland, KY and has been a United Methodist since she was a baby in the nursery. She took piano and organ lessons throughout her childhood and teen years and was very active in her church through choirs and UMYF. She accompanied choirs and was a substitute organist.

At Vanderbilt University in Nashville, TN, Linda continued with organ studies, and received a Bachelor's degree in Mathematics. Later, while living in Charleston, SC where her family was stationed for the Navy, she received an MBA at The Citadel.

Linda has been a member of Burke UMC since 1994 and on staff as organist since 2008. She lives in Fairfax and enjoys spending time with her 2 sons, Chris (and Cassie), Rob, and her grandson, Cody.
